NJLM Educational Foundation's
2009 HOUSING SUMMIT - March 31, 2009

The NJLM Educational Foundation will hold a full-day "Housing Summit" on Tuesday March 31, 2009 at the East Brunswick Hilton from 8:30 am – 3:30 pm.

This special event is targeted towards leaders from the State's 566 municipalities. The objective is to help municipal officials address immediate and long-term challenges that relate to housing, with a positive, solution-driven agenda. Participants will have ample networking opportunities, as well access to timely, valuable information and tools to utilize in their community.

Registration is only $50.00 per person, which includes continental breakfast, luncheon and educational materials. Click Here for a Registration Form - WORD PDF

The conference will feature leading experts in community development, housing and the economy, offering municipal and county participants essential information, training and resource materials that address current, vital housing issues facing their communities.

The meeting will offer:

- Best Practices case studies presented by professionals and successful leaders
 - Up-to-the-minute facts about high profile topics such as:
 - Housing and the Economic Climate outlook
 - Workforce Housing
 - COAH regulations
 - Special Needs Affordable Housing
 - Abandoned Property Redevelopment
 - Foreclosure Mitigation
 - Rehabilitation of Blighted Areas, and
 - Creative Housing Financing

With invited guest luncheon speaker

Hon. Michael Nutter
Mayor, Philadelphia

Morning and afternoon sessions will feature prominent mayors, legislators and state housing professionals and practitioners who have proven track records in dealing with the broad spectrum of housing issues in New Jersey and the region.
