Registration Open For 2009 Green Cities Conference

Green is the New $Green$. Cities across the country are learning that sustainable, environmentally sound practices and programs are not only great for the health of the community but are also economically sound. The first NLC Green Cities Conference and Exposition (April 18-22, 2009 in Portland Oregon) has a limited number of spaces available. Don't miss this important opportunity to learn about great practices and new programs that help cities go green.

Registration is open for the 2009 Green Cities Conference and Expo! Take advantage of early bird registration rates, available until November 30, 2008 and receive a significant discount.

Exhibiting and Sponsorship Opportunities Available

Does your city, town or village have a great program or initiative that needs to be shared? Does your organization or company offer innovative products, services or expertise that can help municipal governments develop and achieve their sustainability and environmental goals? If you answered "yes" to either of these questions, then exhibit at the 2008 NLC Green Cities Conference and Exposition. This inaugural Green Cities Conference offers a rare opportunity to connect with an anticipated 1,000 participants including Mayors, city managers and other key decision makers as well as nonprofit and government partners committed to building sustainable futures in their communities. To learn more about exhibiting, contact jkardon@gmail.com or call 504-293-2615.

Make sure that those making "green" decisions know about your commitment to creating sustainable and environmentally sound communities. Take advantage of sponsorship opportunities at the 2009 Green Cities Conference and expo. Download the sponsorship brochure for more information, or contact csbecker11@juno.com or 202-363-2165 or jkardon@gmail.com or call 504-293-2615.
