New Jersey Cable Cos. Partner with AG Milgram on Underage Drinking

Working with Attorney General Anne Milgram and Division of Alcoholic Beverage Control Director Jerry Fischer, New Jersey's cable companies are helping to educate parents and students of the dangers of underage drinking during the busy prom and graduation season.

As a part of the Attorney General's "Proms and Alcohol Don't Mix" program, now in its third year, New Jersey's cable companies are broadcasting student-produced public service announcements (PSAs) designed to increase awareness about underage drinking.

The PSAs can be found on the Division of ABC's website:
