Subject: Housing Forum, June 18, 2009

Good Morning:

You will be receiving a formal letter from the Department of Housing and Urban Development inviting you to a Housing Forum that we will be held on Thursday, June 18, 2009 at the Frelinghuysen Arboretum. There will be a morning panel that will address issues such as affordable homeownership opportunities in today's economy. The afternoon panel will be a presentation about a multitude of programs aimed to prevent foreclosures. We felt it was important to invite the municipalities as the housing situation has affected every community in Morris County in some way. Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions. Thank you.
