2009 New Jersey Local Government Deskbook

Dear Municipal Clerk:

2009 New Jersey Local Government Deskbook Available

The New Jersey Law Journal is pleased to announce the publication of 2009 New Jersey Local Government Deskbook, by Thomas P. Scrivo. The 2009 edition is fully updated and revised, adding valuable new content, including discussion of: Protection for employees from discrimination based on genetic testing results, reasonable accommodation of an employee's sincerely held religious beliefs, expanded rights of employees who have family members in the armed services, paid family temporary disability leave, challenges to the outcome of an election based on illegal votes, whether age as a factor in determining pension status violates the Age Discrimination in Employment Act.

Published in cooperation with the New Jersey State League of Municipalities, this plain-language handbook organizes and updates a town's procedural and regulatory obligations, walking the reader through:

Open Meetings
Public Access to Government Records
Powers of Municipal Officials
Autonomous Departments and Agencies
Municipal Ethics
Procurement, Public Bidding
