RE: WORKSHOP FOR DEP GRANTS

CO-SPONSORED BY:

Workshop for DEP Grants:
Planning and Designing Climate-Friendly Towns

Monday, July 20, 2009
10 a.m. to 12 noon

Edward J. Bloustein School, Room 113
33 Livingston Avenue, New Brunswick

On June 18th, the NJ Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) announced a new grant program for municipalities and counties: the Local Government Greenhouse Gas Reduction Program. This workshop will focus on one aspect of the grant program: the development and implementation of climate-friendly design guidelines and zoning standards that allow for compact, walkable mixed-use development and/or transit-oriented development.

Speakers will present successful planning initiatives and approaches that are eligible for this grant category. DEP staff will be present to answer questions about all aspects of the grant program, including the application process, deadlines and qualifications. (Grant amounts for this category range from $25,000 - $200,000. Click Here for more information on the grant program.)

Speakers:

Pam Mount, Moderator

Owner, Terhune Orchards; Member, New Jersey Future Board of Trustees;
Vice President, NJLM Mayors Committee for a Green Future

Angus Jennings, AICP

Principal Planner, Concord Square Planning & Development, Inc.

Representative

Borough of Haddonfield, NJ

Elizabeth Semple and Martin Rosen

NJDEP Office of Planning and Sustainability

This workshop is provided at no charge; however, registration is required. Please contact Marianne Jann at New Jersey Future: mariannejann@njfuture.org or 609-393-0008, x101. The Edward J. Bloustein School is located at 33 Livingston Avenue in downtown New Brunswick. Click here for directions and area map with parking information.
