It is vitally important for all elected and appointed officials to be aware of the ethics landscape especially given national, state and local developments. This program is appropriate for all municipal officials and employees, experienced, or new.

Director Susan Jacobucci, Esq, of the DCA, Division of Local Government Services has presented many programs on municipal ethics. She will review the municipal ethical culture, concentrating on conflicts of interest and understanding and dealing with gifts.

Registration is $55 by voucher. Register for one session (not both):

-Visit www.njslom.org click on Calendar, Go to the date you are attending
-Download the registration form, complete and fax it to (609) 695-0151

Questions about registering – contact Suzanne Delany SDelany@njslom.com or 609-695-3481 ext. 111.

CEUs have been approved: CMFO & CCFO 4-Ethics; CTC 4-Ethics; CPWM 4-Ethics; RMC 4-Ethics

Re: II. Invitation for 2009 New Jersey Statewide Cultural Festival, September 26

Dear Mayors:

Governor Jon S. Corzine and Secretary of State Nina Wells are again hosting the New Jersey Statewide Cultural Festival, to be held this year on Saturday, September 26, from noon to 5 p.m. at beautiful South Riverwalk Park in Trenton. As so many of you know, this free annual event showcasing our state's incredible ethnic and cultural diversity has become a favorite of thousands of festival goers.

I would encourage you to join the Governor and Secretary of State in celebrating the food, crafts, dance, music, artistry and history of the different groups that define New Jersey's unique character. As has become a wonderful and much anticipated festival tradition, there will once again be a naturalization ceremony for new American citizens, presided over by the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services South Jersey office. A festival flyer that I hope you can make available to your constituents is attached, and more information is on the festival website, www.njculturfestival.com. For further information, please call the festival hotline at 609-777-0881.

Thank you as always for your tremendous partnership in promoting the richness of our state and our communities and I look forward to seeing you at this year's festival.

Very truly yours,

William G. Dressel, Jr.
Executive Director
