NLC Issues a Call for Great Solutions

Dear Colleague:

The National League of Cities (NLC) is issuing a Call for Great Solutions to gather innovative solutions and great ideas that address issues facing cities. If selected, solutions will be incorporated into the 2008 Congress of Cities and Exposition (November 11-15). Submissions will be accepted through June 30, 2008 at www.NLCCongressofCities.org. The deadline is fast approaching, and you are encouraged to share your great solution.

This is not a traditional call for presenters; submissions should not include a plan for a full workshop. Instead, they should focus on specific examples of solutions or research that can be incorporated into learning events under development. Selected submitters may be asked to present their solution in one of a variety of formats both in-person and virtual (i.e. workshops, webinars, panel discussions). The 2008 Congress of Cities will be held November 11-15, 2008 in Orlando, Florida.

Visit www.NLCCongressofCities.org and select the Call for Solutions link to access the submission form. For more information or to be placed on a 2008 Congress of Cities e-mail alert, e-mail dwyer-morgan@nlc.org or call 202-626-3140.
