

©

Lashway, Lisa

From: NJLM - Municipal Clerks [njlm-clerks@cityconnections.com]
Sent: Wednesday, July 16, 2008 3:50 PM
To: Lashway, Lisa
Subject: Municipal Clerks from NJLM

 x 	 x 	 x
LEAGUE ALERT
Municipal Clerk: Please forward to Mayor and Governing Body.
July 16, 2008 Re: SUMMER READING! SUMMER READING! 2008 New Jersey Local Government Deskbook, by Thomas P. Scrivo, Esq. Summer is the perfect time for you and your staff to brush up on topics that you deal with all year, but don't know all the answers. The New Jersey Law Journal, in cooperation with the New Jersey State League of Municipalities, published New Jersey Local Government Deskbook, by Thomas P. Scrivo. Scrivo covers the business of running a town from the perspective of its local governing bodies and town officials. This plain-language handbook organizes and updates a town's procedural and regulatory obligations, walking the reader through: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Open Meetings Public Access to Government Records Powers of Municipal Officials Autonomous Departments and Agencies Municipal Ethics Procurement, Public Bidding Condemnation and Redevelopment Real Property Taxation Labor and Employment Law, ERISA Municipalities' Relationships with other Governmental Entities Public Utilities

Claims Against Public Entities, Litigation
Election Law
Public Spending , Finance
Structure of Municipal Governments
Local Legislative Procedure

In his municipal law practice, Mr. Scrivo serves as Township Attorney to two New Jersey municipalities. In addition, Mr. Scrivo has served as special counsel to municipalities for cases involving real estate tax appeals, labor and employment, civil rights litigation, public bidding and contracts, and election law. He also represents developers in land use matters before planning boards, boards of adjustment and municipal bodies. A partner with McElroy, Deutsch, Mulvaney & Carpenter, (based in Morristown, with offices in Newark, Ridgewood, New York, Philadelphia, and Denver, Mr. Scrivo has extensive experience in the areas of complex commercial and corporate litigation, contract disputes, redevelopment law, business litigation, construction litigation, health care law, real estate tax appeal litigation, estates and trusts litigation, professional liability litigation, environmental law, workers' compensation, toxic tort and product liability litigation, and securities litigation.

FOR Town Officials and Personnel : Council Members, Town Engineers, Clerks, Tax Assessment Officers, Municipal Attorneys, Municipal Managers, Planning Boards, Zoning Boards of Adjustment, Civil Defense and Emergency Management Personnel, Housing and Redevelopment Officers, Election Officers, Parking Authorities, Municipal Court Personnel, Sewage and Utilities Commissions, Board of Health Officers, Historic Preservations Commissions, Environmental Commissions, Municipal Port Authorities, Rent Control Boards. Condemnation and Redevelopment Boards, Mayors, Freeholders.

ALSO PERFECT FOR Attorneys Practicing in Municipal Law, Government Contracts Law, Public Finance/Bonds, Labor and Employment Law, Land Use and Zoning, Election Law, Environmental Law, Tax Law, Real Estate, Construction Law.

Order online at www.lawcatalog.com/locgovnjslom or by calling 973-854-2945.

The New Jersey Law Journal is the 130-year-old publication of Incisive Media. Publications include The American Lawyer, National Law Journal, The Philadelphia Intelligencer, and other newspapers, magazines, books, seminars and on-line services throughout the country. ALM is an Incisive Media company.

2008 New Jersey Local Government Deskbook ISBN# 978-1-57625-279-6
850 Pages, Annual Paperback

League Members' Price: $129.95 ($20 discount). Order 4 copies and receive the 5th copy free.

Call Linda Manahan 973-854-2920 lmanahan@alm.com

To order or for more information, go to www.lawcatalog.com/locgovnjslom or call 973-854-2945.