Mount Olive Remembers

In memory of the attacks of September 11th, the Mount Olive Public Library, in partnership with the Givaudan Community Advisory Panel, Veolia Environmental Services, and Hackettstown Regional Medical Center present a series of programs honoring those who lost or gave their lives.

9/11 Image Exhibition - Sunday, September 11th from 1-3:30pm.

Images taken by Mount Olive's own William Cirone, of the 9/11 attack and the subsequent rescue efforts, will be on display during the month of September. Join us for a discussion and reception of these touching images as we remember and honor those whose lives were lost.

Performing Tribute 9/11: Ordinary People, Remarkable Stories - Wed, August 31st at 7pm.

Performing Tribute weaves together the perspectives of six individuals who were separately yet directly impacted by the events of 9/11. A project of Endurance Theater, Performing Tribute weaves together the events of 9/11 through five unique and inspiring stories performed by the individuals whose lives were directly impacted by 9/11.

Joey Rizzolo – Freedom Walk Kids of America - Wednesday, September 7th at 6pm

In January of 2007, Joey Rizzolo decided to initiate a Freedom Walk. He organized this event to remember lives lost on 9/11 and to honor his local First Responders and Veterans, past and present. On September 9th, a beautiful Sunday afternoon, over 450 Paramus residents, Fire, Police, Rescue, Ambulance crews, Veterans and US Congressman Scott Garrett gathered as one to take time out of their busy lives to remember. Since then, Joey continues his annual freedom walk every September and honors those who gave the ultimate sacrifice. Mr. Rizzolo will join us to present and discuss his historic Freedom Walks. This program is intended for young adults in 9th-12th grade.

Registration required for all 9/11 programming. Call 973-691-8686 or www.mopl.org to register.

MOUNT OLIVE REMEMBERS

Emergency Preparedness

Thursday, September 8th at 7pm

Officer Russ Hatzel of MOPD presents a discussion on emergency Preparedness. Learn some of the things you can do to prepare for the unexpected, such as making an emergency supply kit and developing a family communications plan.

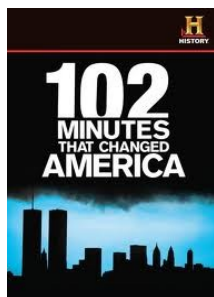

Registration Required

This program is brought to you in partnership with the Givaudan Community Advisory Panel, Veolia Environmental Services, and Hackettstown Regional Medical Center.

102 Minutes that Changed America

Join us for this unprecedented documentary special as it joins hundreds of pieces of footage and audiotape into a single, seamless historical record. An intensely personal perspective of the tragedy, communicating for the first time that morning's events, as they were experienced.

Friday, September 9th at 2pm.

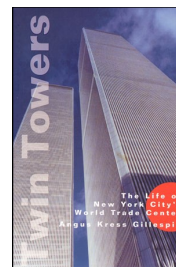

This program is brought to you in partnership with the Givaudan Community Advisory Panel, Veolia Environmental Services, and Hackettstown Regional Medical Center.

Remembering the Twin Towers

Presented by author Angus Gillespie, Ph.D.

Saturday, September 10th at 1:00pm

Today, the Twin Towers of the World Trade Center stand only in our memory, an image that calls to mind sorrow and loss. But during the years that they straddled the skyline, they were more than just office buildings. They were symbols of America.

Registration Required

Emergency Preparedness for Children

Saturday, September 10th at 10:30am

Officer Russ Hatzel of MOPD presents a discussion on emergency preparedness for children. It is important that children know what to do in an emergency. A few ways children can plan to be prepared for emergencies include practicing emergency drills at home and school, knowing where the family meeting place is, how to call 911, who the out-of-town family contact is, and what to do during an emergency.

Registration Required
